

Leading Innovation for
Southern farmers' prosperity

Do not miss this Field Day if you're a southern farmer!

Interpreting market signals:
Navigating the future of greenhouse gas emissions

Tuesday 12 March
10am – 1.30pm

611 Ryal Bush
Wallacetown Road
Supply number 31443
(Meet at the cow shed)

Plantain: a cost effective N-mitigation tool

- How do plantain cultivars differ?
- The latest research on effect on N losses
- Establishment and maintenance of plantain in farm systems

Greenhouse gases and soil carbon

- What is soil carbon and why does it matter?
- How close to carbon neutral is achievable?
- Farm management factors that affect soil carbon?

Special Guest:
Andy Macfarlane
Director of ANZCO
and Fonterra
Chair of SFFF
Plantain Project

For more information contact: Andrea Dixon, SDH GM – 027 564 5595

More details will be available on the DairyNZ events website and www.facebook.com/SouthernDairyHub

Proudly supported by

Lunch sponsored by

