

SOUTHERN DAIRY HUB

Leading Innovation for Southern farmers' prosperity

Do not miss this Field Day
if you're a southern farmer!

Interpreting market signals:
Navigating the future of greenhouse gas emissions

Tuesday 12 March 10.15am – 1.30pm

611 Ryal Bush
Wallacetown Road
Supply number 31443
(Meet at the cow shed)

Plantain – a cost effective N-mitigation tool

- ✦ How do plantain cultivars differ?
- ✦ The latest research results on effect on N losses
- ✦ Establishment and maintenance of plantain in farm systems

Greenhouse gases and soil carbon

- ✦ What is soil carbon and why does it matter?
- ✦ How close to carbon neutral is achievable?
- ✦ Farm management factors that affect soil carbon?

For more information contact: Andrea Dixon, SDH GM – 027 564 5595

More details will be available on the DairyNZ events website and www.facebook.com/SouthernDairyHub

Proudly supported by

