

Southern Dairy Hub Field Day

DISCUSSION TOPICS

Utilising collar technology with Ryan Luckman- Veterinary Centre Waimate

- ▶ Sharing the SDH cow information
- ▶ Understanding the trigger points and actions required for improvement
- ▶ Transition management
- ▶ Things to consider over the pre-mating and mating period

Does heat stress occur in Southland? with senior scientist Kirsty Verhoek

- ▶ Behavioural and physiological changes
- ▶ What is heat stress and how cows respond?
- ▶ Why are we interested in Southland?

Bale grazing as another option for cow wintering with Dr Ross Monaghan and Dylan Ditchfield

- ▶ Ross Monaghan and Dylan Ditchfield will share findings from a grazing study in northern Southland that has compared some environmental and animal welfare attributes of bale grazing and kale wintering approaches.

EVENT DETAILS

10.30am - 1pm

Wednesday 11 October

Wallacetown Hall

Registration from 10am, the event will be followed by a BBQ lunch. You can also stay after lunch and join us for a farm tour with PGG, checking out cultivation techniques, seed use and much more!

More details will be available on facebook.com/SouthernDairyHub and the DairyNZ events website

Lunch sponsored by LIC

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Keely Buckingham - Extension Partner
027 524 5890

Andrea Dixon - SDH General Manager
027 564 5595
andrea.dixon@southerndairyhub.co.nz

PROUDLY SUPPORTED BY

